

Introduction:

With the upsurge of tourism in the country, instances have come to the notice of the tourism department where tourists have been extorted by shopkeepers, unauthorized guides, touts hawkers and lapakas even harassed by auto rickshaw drivers. Large number of these people can be seen at places visited by tourists such as airports, bus stands, monuments etc. they not only cheat the hapless tourists but also are a nuisance for them.

Tourist Assistance Force (TAF) scheme was started by the tourism department in the year 2000. At present 139 TAF personnel are deployed at prominent sites of tourist interest in following destinations:

Jaipur, Jodhpur, Jaisalmer, Bharatpur, Bikaner, Chittaurgarh, Sawai Madhopur, Ajmer-Pushkar, Mount Abu, Jhalawar and Bundi.

To enhance the safety and security of tourists visiting the State, the Tourism Department has increased the number of TAF personnel to 139 and new destinations have been added i.e Jhalawar & Chittaurgarh

You can take help of Tourist Assistance Force:

To know about the locality of tourist sites and respective distance.

In case of harassment by peddlers, hawkers, touts, beggars etc.

To take guidance about local law and order, security and hazards and for that free pamphlets of "Dos and Don'ts" are provided to tourists by TAF personnel.

To take information about authorized taxi stands, ATMs', money exchanges, guest houses, hotels restaurants etc.

To take guidance about medical facilities available nearby. Recently on-call ambulance (Phone no.108) facility has been provided by govt. and TAF personnel guides the tourist in emergency.
